PROGRAMME OF THE BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

The fourth annual meeting of the Baptist Autumnal Conference will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Caivary Baptist Church in Fifty-seventh-st., between Sixth and Seventh aves. Sessions will be held afternoon and evening. At the afternoon session on Tuesday papers will be read on the "Indian Question" and the "Mormon Question," and in the evening on "Socialism, false and true. These topics will be discussed. On Thursday evening the officers, speakers and specially invited friends of the Autumnal Conference will be the guests of the officers of the Baptist Social Unions of New-York and Brooklyn, at Delmonico's, Fifth-ave, and Twenty-sixth-st.

THE BEAR STARTS FOR ALASKA. THE BEAR STARTS FOR ALASKA.

The United States steamer Bear left her anchorage of Scaum Island at S.a. in. yesterday and started on her vovage to Alaska and the Arctic Ocean. There was a heavy fog on the bay at the time, but through the mist the officers of the Bear could see and answer the salutes given from other vessels as they passed out of the harbor. The steamer will stop at Valparaiso and San Francisco.

JERSEY CITY.

Mamie Lyman, age five, died resterday from the effects of injuries received by failing on Saturday evening from the window of her parents home on the fourth floor of No. 444 Henderson-st. The child was leaning out of the window to throw a kiss to her father who was going out, when she lost her balance and fell. In her descent she grazed the shoulder of Mary Welsh a young woman, who was passing at the moment.

OBSERVANCES OF " TEMPERANCE SUNDAY." OBSERVANCES OF "TEMPERANCE SUNDAY."

The Protestant Episcopal churches in New-York observed yesteriay as Temperance Sunday. Special services in the morning and evening were held in most of the churches and all devoted at least a portion of the day to the subject. In all the dioceses of New-York, and in Psansylvania, New-Jersey, Massachusetts and Councetleut the same observance was made. Fully a thousand sermons on temperance were preached in the twelve dioceses comprised in those States during the day. The attempt to make this observance general on a stated Sunday of the year is an experiment, and is the result of the efforts of the Church Femperance Society, which has for years been engaged in the temperance movement. Bishop Henry C. Fotter, in a letter to the clergy of his diocese, armestly recommended these services. If an epidemic alkey ellow fever or choicra threatened the country, he observes, all churches would unite in special prayer on the evil: intemperance through drink, by which millions perish to the hundreds who die from epidemic, is no less deserving of combined religious efforts to re-Pressit.

is no less deserving of combined religious efforts to repressit.

Temperance is urged by the Episcopal Church as a Christian virtue; not simply from a moral or social standpoint. These methods have been adopted in England and for several years have been employed with a favorable result. There are enrolled in the movement in England 500,000 jitvenile members, a large number of older persons and 5,000 of the elergy. The result is shown in the growing generation, and in the fact that the sale of liquors has failen off over $100,000,000 since the work began. The interest in this country has already enrolled lity-four bishops in the ranks of the society. The Church Temperance Society has prepared a bill to be presented at the next Legislature, asking a license of $1,000 for the sale of distilled inquers and of $100 for the sale of distilled inquers and of $100 for the sale of fundars. The bill prohibits the sale of intoxicating drinks in tenement-houses, on excursion boats, on Sundars or to minors. This bill was made the subject of many of the secmons during the day and was advocated as the best means of dealing with the liquor question.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF BOWERY MISSION. At the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the Bowery Mission and Young Men's Home, at No. 36 Bowery, yesterday afternoon, the president, the Rev. A. G. Roliffson, conducted the exercises and gave a brief account of the work accomplished from its inception. "The aggregate attendance," he said, "during the past nive years has been 173,987, and the whole number of inquirers during the same period 14,725. In the past twelve mouths we have had 2,195 inquirers and a total attendance of about 35,000. The Young Men's Hible Class has been of peculiar inter-st, and its work has been productive of good results. We have raised one young man out of the sinuss of the city through its influence, and sent him to a theological seminary, where he is studying to preach the Gospel. Several Hebrews have also come into our meetings and been converted. We have sent several of our early converts to labor in foreign fields, and others are at the head of prominent missions in this city. Our location in the flowery is peculiarly favorable for reaching those who need the saving hand of the Gospel. The Bowery is fall of boarding-houses—it is estimated that from 20,000 to 30,000 sleep in them mightly—and our mission here, right in the midst of them, makes it possible for us to reach many persons, Our door has been constantly open for them, and many have taken advantage of the opportunity."

A hymn, composed by Mes Fanny Crosby for the occasion, 'Our Mission Five Years Old,' was then sung

A hymn, composed by Mes Fanny Crosby for the oc-asion, "Our Mission Five Years Old," was then sung Casion, "Our Mission Five Years Old," was then sung by the audicuce. Testimonies were listened to, after which addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Prime, of the New-York Observer, the Rev. M. Bailey, a missionary to the West Indies, the Rev. F. H. Marling, of the Fourteenth Street Presbyterian Caurch, the Rev. C. Thomas, of the Christian Advocate, the Rev. E. Rogers, of the Alien Street Presbyterian Church, and C. M. Crittenden, of the Florence Mission.

One of the most daring burglaries ever committed on Staten Island was committed at the house of W. H. Motley, in Central-ave, near Arletta-st., Tompkinsville, on Saturday morning. Mr. Motley is a stock broker at No. 34 Wall-st., New-York, and lives with his family in a pretty cottage on the west-side of Central-ave, on high ground that overlooks the harber from the Narrows to the city. Shortly after 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, after Mr. Motley had left the house and the other members of the family were attending Mrs. Motley, who was ill, one of the four servants heard the quick and steady tread of a man's feet on the gravel path, and a moment later there was a quiet knock on a side floor. The servant story is that when she opened the floor a man facing her pushed a pistol up to her face and threatened to blow her brains out if she made the least noise. Frightened and fainting she sank into a chair and did not recover her consciousness until some minutes later when she gave an alarm. In the meantime the burglar had gone to the second floor of the cottage, passing the room in which Mrs. Motley was and making a papid search through bureau drawers and dressing cases, capitured about all of the most valuable jewelry in the house and made his escape. A reward of $500 has been offered for the return of the jewelry, valued at about $5,000, and "no questions asked." DARING BURGLARY IN BROAD DAYLIGHT.

The funeral services of Thomas W. Timpson, treasurer of Coustantine Commandery, Knights Templar, and president of the trustees of the Phigrim Congregational Church, at Madison-ave, and One-hundrel-and-twenty-first-st, which took place in the church yesterday afternoon were made unusually impressive because of the part taken by the Masonic brethren. He was a member of Lily Lodge, F. and A. M.; 1vy Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; Adelphia Council of Royal and Select Masters; Constantine Commandery, Knights Templar; Cerucan Consistory, Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret; the Masonic Veteran Association, and the Mutual Knights Templar Association. The bodies, in the full regalia of the several grades, were present. After the regular services were read by the Hev. Dr. Samuel H. Virgin, Right Eminent Sir George W. Walgrove, prelate of Constantine Commandery, conducted the masonic services from the Templar ritual. The body was then taken in charge by the several masonic bodies, and under the escort of Columbian Commandery, Knights Templar, commanded by Eminent Sir Charles Benedict, proceeded to Woodland Cemetery where the burial took place with masonic honors. Ameny others present were Eminent Sir Kaights W. H. DeGraaf, Charles P. Peirce, Phillip Lowe, Charles Benedict, Oliver G. Brady, James Cochrane, Cyrus O. Hubbell, and W. H. Brockway.

The regular Sunday meeting of the Mannattan Temperance Society was held yesterday afterpoon in the Masonic Temple, and was attended by a large number of advocates of the cause. President Gibbs was happier than usual on account of the large attendance and before introducing the speakers explained that fault had been found with the manner in which the services had been conducted and said that according to the constitution of the association nothing of a political or religious nature, other than the belief in God was to be advanced, and that if a Republican or Demecrat who favored temperance wished to speak he could do so. He then said that Mr. Merritt did not get quite enough votes to elect him but that the thousands or votes that he did receive made a fine showing, and asked all there to combine in one solid body for the cause of temperance. J.
M. Laflin the athlete, who was badly handled by John L. Sullivan in the Madison Square Garden, spoke on the falurious effect of eigarette smoking.

spoke on " General Grant, the Hero, and the Temperanco Pight."

ALWAYS READY TO "BEAT" A MONOPOLY. Two young men came rushing up the stairs

Two young men came rushing up the stairs and on to the platform of a fluid ave, elevated station up-town yesterday. A train was just stopping and the guard's attention was taken up with opening the exit gate. One of them threw a ticket hastiy into the box. The other made a feint in the same direction, but quickly closed his hand over his ticket. Both passed into the train.

"I always try to 'heat' a monopoly," laughed the one, and his companion looked the picture of disgust that he had not thought of doing the same thing. "Last year," the fare-jumper continued, "I used to go over to Brooklyn two or three times a week, but I did not pay fare often this side of the Bridge. All you have to do is to watch your chance in the confusion when a train stops and keep an eye on the guard. Why, last year I carried one ticket in my pocket till it positively was worn out," and the successful swindler laughed again as the train slowed up and the brakeman called out "Twenty-third."

FUNERAL OF JAMES ARNOT PALMER. James Arnot Palmer, who died at Yale Col-James Arnot Palmer, who died at Yale College studenty on Thursday last, was buried yesterday afternoon at Woodlawn Cemetery. The funeral services were held at the house of his stepfather, George Griswich Hard, and the house of his stepfather, George Griswich Hard, and the hard come from New-Haven the night before and were at the burial. The Rer. Dr. Samuel Cooke, of St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Dr. O. H. Tiffany, of the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, read the services. The St. George Glee Church, read the services. The St. George Glee Church quartet sang the "Miserrer" and "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and "Lead, Kindly Light." The services were extremely simple, and the grave faces of the young collectans lent an earnestness and peculiar solemnity to the occasion. Mr. Palmer's class at Yale have taken action in memory of his death, and the members will wear crape for a month.

A DAY OF FOG AND RAIN.

There ought to have been plenty of people at the charches yesterday. The weather was just of that character to make a sinner feel his unworthiness and resolve to unload his sins and take a fresh start. It was a thoroughly dismal day-magy, foggy and wet. In the forenoon the sun made some ineffectual efforts to plere the all pervading gloom, then gave up the job in despair and Nature wept coplously and steadily. There were heavy rains in the New-England and Middle Atlantic States and light rains in the South Atlantic and Eastern Gulf states. Clear weather was reported from the lake regions, the Ohlo valley and Tennessee, where the temperature fell from 20 to 25%. A cold wave is shifting this way from the West and is expected to make literif felt early this morning. The weather will be clear with a fall in temperature of from 20 to 25%, but the weather was close enough yesterday, taking the season into account, to stand that reduction without occasioning any inconvenience.

HE GOT LOW RATES FOR ADVERTISING.

"I had an agent once," said Bob Ingersoil to a reporter, "who was the best fellow in the business in the world. He saved me more money in advertising and got me more notice at the newspapers than I could account for," "What was his virtue!" "He stuttered." "One would imagine that would be a very serious objection," "Quite the reverse. At least I didn't object, but other people did. He stuttered very baily. He would go into a newspaper office with an advertisement: "Hehenow mem-mement I-f-for the a-a-t ad!" Tea dollars. Then he began to stutter very badly." I the thetheine k you'd bebeen to tutte very badly." Geewhillkins! make it $5. "P-p-ut it in." If they'd only waited, he meant to tell them to put it in at $10."

SCULPTOR SIMMONS IN WASHINGTON.
Dispatch to The Lewiston (Mr., Journal.)
Franklin Simmons, the Maine sculptor, has been staying quietly at Wormley's for a coupin of weeks, engaged in modelling a bust of ex-Senator Yulee, of Florida. In an interview this afternoon Mr. Simmons intimated that he has other private contracts for work in Washington which may keep him here some time longer. He will sail for Europe within a few weeks, on his way to his studio in Rome.

FOR SPECIALTIES THIS WIEN

The news from the Indian territory does not surprise us. The so-called Oklahoma boom, which is merely a lawless invasion of the Indian reservation by a mob of deadbeats, adventurers and landsharks, invariably happens—or perhaps, we should say occurs—in the fall, just before the meeting of Congress. The purpose in this is apparent, but it has never availed; corrupt as our Congress has been, it has never had the temerity to yield to the importunities of the ring which is engineering the Oklahoma boom. This man Couch, who seems to have constituted himself Captain Payne's residuary legatee and natural successor, is a mere clown when compared with the defunct boomer. He has all the impertinence, with none of the originality, of the first boomer.—[Chicago News. 500 DIFFERENT STYLES BEST BOD' BRUSSELS, 500 CHOICE PATTERNS BEST ALL-WOL HIGRAINS, AT LESS THAN COST OF PRODUTION.
